CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE SUSPENDS OLD MEMBER | Ba

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—Charles Head Teulon et al. to George E. Walker 43, block 6, Washington Heights, $10. Smith has been suspended from the board of trade for non-payment of debts. This action was taken at a directors' meeting. The suspended broker is well known in the grain pit, having at one time been one of the principal brokers for Edward Partridge. He was a prom-inent wheat trader in the days of "Old for Edward Partridge. He was a prominent wheat trader in the days of "Old Hutch."

Smith also has been a popular character on race tracks, having owned at one time a valuable string of horses, which ran in various parts of the country. He owned Lieutenant Gibson, the winner of a Kentucky Derby and also was a member of the Washington Park Club. At times he has speculated in railroad stocks. In one deal on Unio Pacific he is said to have cleaned up more than $200,000.

It was learned that Arthur Munson filed the complaint, charging that a debt of $2,000 had not been paid.
